Synopsis

Bomb Collection Event is almost exactly the same as Red Collection and Chuck Collection events, but this time you activate Bombs to get points in the event. Players are put into buckets and they compete for the first position within the given time frame.

What

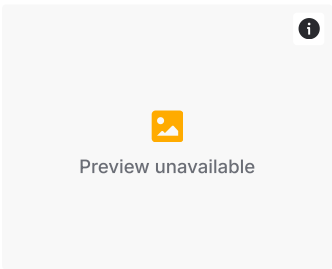

- Event where players compete against each other creating and using Bombs

Why

- Long hanging fruit (we already have Red and Chuck variants)
- Raise the Bomb awareness
- Players will have to approach levels a bit differently for maximum score

How

- Activate Bombs in core game to score points
- Compete against other players within a time limit
- Get rewards
- Creation of Bomb is explained in the event
 - Event start popup
 - Event popup with a tooltip (or alternatively just have it there visible all the time, depending if there is enough space for it)
